Mr. Harold Weisberg

Frederick, Maryland 21702

Dear Harold:

I was sorry to learn that your appeal may be rejected because of seemingly minor, inadvertent, procedural errors. However, that is one of the real pitfalls encountered by non-lawyers. It is too bad that you are not able to establish a relationship with some aggressive, energetic, young attorney, who would have been interested in pursuing your case because of the larger policy issues involved.

I do belive there is a statute of limitations on fraud. It varies between civil and criminal fraud. You will have to check this out insofar as Maryland statutes are concerned.

Good luck.

With kind regards.

Sincerely,

Cyril
